"Reviewed By Alma Boucher for Readers' Favorite

This inspirational audiobook, Make Your Destiny Happen, is written by Donzel A. Leggett to help the reader go from just thinking about something to actually doing it.

It is based on Leggett's Destiny Development Delta™ Model. It focuses on the need to assess and evaluate one's current circumstance, relieves the feeling of being stuck, and inspires the redefinition and revisioning of success. Leggett also provides tools, techniques, and transformative strategies to help the reader make and maintain permanent change. The author provides personal stories and lessons learned from his extensive experience in executive leadership. From this, he developed a series of steps that he hopes will motivate the reader to take control of their life and define their future in a more meaningful way.

Make Your Destiny Happen throws you into the story as the main character and encourages you to discover your own path of personal development. As you progress, Donzel A. Leggett guides you with certain attitudes of leadership as well as principles of managing change. By the end, you should have a better understanding of accountability, resilience, authenticity, and disciplined planning. The narrative is clear and straight to the point. It manages to avoid the technical jargon that comes with leadership and management. The consistently steady pace and the clarity should encourage you to think and appreciate the system ingrained in the book.

The audiobook, read by Donzel A. Leggett, allows you to experience another dimension of his work. Without a doubt, Leggett demonstrates the particular tone of a veteran mentor. The performance was measured, confident, and encouraging. The sound is very polished, and the production quality is excellent, which contributes to the experience of a personal leadership seminar. For those who are ready to own their future, this well-designed resource will help them achieve that goal."
